

Date/Time: May, 25th, 13:30~18:00

Venue: Main Building, Room #21, Fuchu, TUAT

Time	Presenter	Field visited	Title / Topic
13:30	Opening remarks...Prof.Takada Hideshige, FOLENS Director
13:35	Ozaki Hirokazu		Water quality change by an anthropogenic factor in a city canal in CanTho and the key ideas for Field-Oriented Environmental Leadership
Post-Field Presentation part 1
13:50	Kondo Kei	Taiwan, Aug17-25, 2010	An exercise of modeling and monitoring for pesticide fate and transport under the tropical meteorological condition in Taiwan
14:10	Rinawati	Indonesia, Sep26-Oct10, 2010	Sources identification of sedimentary and atmospheric PAHs in Jakarta, Indonesia
14:30	Uehara Ayumi	China, Oct12-18, 2010	Collection of Chrysanthemum and related genera in China as plant materials, for flavonoid analysis
14:50	Li Sen	China, Oct27-Nov5, 2010	The investigation of treatment technology of soil pollution and efficiency usage technology of energy in China
15:10	Break
Post-Field Presentation part 2
15:20	Bessy Kho Sze Ee	Vietnam, Feb16-Mar1, 2011	Nitrogen & phosphorus movements in Chieng Khoi watershed In Vietnam
15:40	Ei Ei Theint	Vietnam, Feb16-Mar1, 2011	Eco-balance analysis on rice cultivation systems related with environmental impacts and farm income
16:00	Tungsomkid Jameekorn	Thailand, Feb20-Mar21st, 2011	Agriculture and environmental management in Thailand
16:20	Break
Post-Field Discussion
16:30	Group discussion	* Any similar or different phenomena in various locations? What are the factor of them among the locations? What about the relationships ?
17:00	Group Presentation	* Disucuss about association between the overseas environment and your life, your community.
17:15	Overall discussion	* How does "overseas field training" effect for you to play an initiative role in environmental secors in Aisa and Africa?
17:55	Closing remarks...Associate Professor Furuichi, FOLENS Chief Coodinator
18:00	Wrap up		